ABOUT JAIPUR

Jaipur, the "Pink City" and the stunning capital of the Indian state of Rajasthan, is a hub for tourists and visitors from all over the world, looking to explore and discover a history that is rich and vibrant even today, evident in the city's breathtaking forts and palaces. Jaipur, founded in 1727 by the Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh, now is among UNESCO's World Heritage Sites.

ABOUT UNIVERSITY

The University of Rajasthan is the oldest institution of higher learning in Rajasthan. It was established on 8 January, 1947 as the University of Rajputana. In the year 1956, it was renamed as the University of Rajasthan. It attracts students from all over Rajasthan and other parts of India and abroad. In 2012 Hon'ble Prime Minister of India stated that "University of Rajasthan leads among the top 50 Indian Scientific institutions in citations per paper under international collaboration". University of Rajasthan is a multifaculty University and is recognized as a "University with Potential for Excellence".

ABOUT DEPARTMENT

Botany Department Established in 1960 at the erstwhile Jaswant College, Jodhpur, the Department was shifted to Rajasthan College, Jaipur in July 1963 and to its present building in August 1974. It is one of the largest and oldest Departments of Botany in the country, known for its pioneering work in the fields of Mycology, Plant Pathology, Morphology and Embryology. Now it has established itself as a research centre in Experimental Morphogenesis, Plant Biotechnology, Nematology, Seed Pathology, Taxonomy, Ethnobotany, Phytochemistry, Plant Ecology, Cytogenetics and Developmental Botany. The Department has 16 different laboratories where basic and applied research is conducted.
